Identified Risks of Participation

Animal Science Department Equine Courses and Related Cal Poly Equine Activities

July 1, 2009 – June 30, 2010

This list of potential risks related to activities included in this University program is intended to assist participants in evaluating the risk of participation and assumption of those risks by agreement. Additional risks, foreseen and unforeseeable, common and uncommon, may also exist and are assumed as consideration for acceptance of registration and participation in this University academic program.

1. Bodily injury – pain, suffering, disability
2. Death
3. Property damage – damage to personal property

I have read the *Cal Poly Equine Safety Awareness Handbook found at http://animalscience.calpoly.edu/departments/safety.asp. This information is specific to the university academic program and related activities, which more specifically describes the risks involved in these activities and is incorporated into this document by reference.

I have reviewed and understand the above information regarding risks of participation in the identified activity(ies).
